

Why Are Skin Diseases So Difficult to Overcome?

When your skin breaks out with itching eruptions, tetter, rash, eczema, psoriasis, or other terrifying disorders, temporary relief will do you but little good, for soon all the itching and irritation breaks out afresh with renewed fury, and you soon realize that local remedies such as ointments, salves and similar treatment will never rid you of your trouble.

These troubles originate in the blood, and if you expect real substantial relief you must treat them through the blood.

The best remedy for this purpose is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that purifies the blood of disease germs, and thus restores the skin to a normal and healthy condition.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write our medical director for expert advice without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 161 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. S. S. S. is not sold or recommended for venereal diseases.

Just Takes An Eaton

"The first dose of Eaton did me wonders. I take it at meals and am no longer bothered with indigestion," writes Mrs. Ellen Harris.

Thousands of people, like this dear lady, gratefully testify about Eaton, which does its wonders by taking up and carrying out the excess acidity and gases which bring on indigestion, heartburn, bloating, belching and food repelling. Acid stomach also causes about seventy other non-organic ailments. Protect yourself. A big box of Eaton costs but a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

HIS REQUIREMENTS NOT HIGH

Connecticut Man Merely Sets Forth Qualities He Desires in His Housekeeper.

A citizen of Bristol, who is separated from his wife, advertised here as follows, according to a Winstead (Conn.) dispatch to the New York Herald:

"Wanted, a housekeeper; good home, small amount of work; prefer one who can sew on a button or two once a month; do not bar politics; she may be a suffragette, as I hold no political job; prefer one who has had not over eighteen years' experience; she must have the Tuesday dinner dishes out of the sink before Thursday; bear in mind I do not bar any religion, but do not want one who is too religious; now, maids, do not apply for this job unless your age is under 90; decent wages and congenial surroundings. Apply at once."

Brief Reform.

"What sore of woman is Mrs. Gadder?"

"The usual kind, I believe."

"Yes."

"After the monthly bills come in and she's had a heart-to-heart talk with Mr. Gadder she practices strict economy for twenty-four hours."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

HORSES COUGHING? USE

Like Raspberry Jam.

Western Australia has a species of Acacia called raspberry jam wood because of its odor which is powerful and almost overpowering when the wood is freshly cut, says the American Forestry Magazine.

WORDS MADE NO DIFFERENCE

Hearers Might Have Found It Hard to Understand, but Old Friends Were Satisfied.

Two lifelong residents of an Indiana city met daily at the noon hour, one going to lunch, and the other returning to work. Their habits have become so regular that they usually meet at the same place on consecutive days. As neither hears well, their brief forms of greeting have become stereotyped, but the other day something slipped and this is what was overheard:

"Mornin', Mr. Jones—nice weather we're having," said the one, oblivious of the fact that it was pouring rain.

"No, Mrs. Smith ain't doin' so well lately. Reckon the weather ain't the best in the world nowadays," was the reply.

"Goin' to attend the revival meetings this week, Mr. Jones?" said the first.

"Yes, you come and see us one of these days," was the parting answer.

An Uplifter, Too.

"My friend, have you ever done anything to make the community the better for your living in it?"

"I have done much, sir," replied the other, earnestly, "to purify the homes of my fellowmen."

"Ah," said the solemn one, rubbing his hands, "do you distribute tracts, may I ask?"

"No; I clean carpets."

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE HOUSE MICE.

"Dear Little Mice," said Mother House Mouse to her seven small children, "you cannot see as yet because you have come into the world quite blind. That is the way you all do. It is the way I did."

"In the Pantries."

You will stay in the warm cotton-nest your mother has for you in the little corner of this cellar.

"You won't stay here for long, though. You will not even wait to grow up. You will go forth by yourselves when you are only partly grown and you will seek your fortunes in the great world of houses and cellars and pantries."

"As yet you do not know what it is to seek your fortunes."

"You do not even know what the word means. But in time you will learn. You will know the smell of cheese and you will find it a very pleasant smell."

"You will care for all sorts of good-fies and you will hope that people will let you eat of their food quite free and without wishing you any harm."

"Many of you will be able to make sweet little sounds. You will chirp and even sing!"

"Yes, the little house mice can sing. Many, many of them can."

"And you will not need a great hall in which to give your concerts. You will not want to stand upon a platform and have a lot of people sit in front of you ready to clap their hands when you are through."

"You won't care to have a great deal of attention when you sing."

"And you won't ask for clapping. In fact you won't care for clapping. You will not want praise. You will rather care to sing your songs when you think no one is listening."

"It seems strange to many people that you sing. But we, Mother House Mice, know that you can and the people will learn that you really sing little songs, or at least chirp little songs."

"And often you will warble little songs, too!"

"You will never grow to be very big. It is better that way. Then you can get in and out of smaller holes."

"You will wear such nice, simple, gray suits and you will become very proud, each of you, of the nice, long, hairless tail which is a part of you, and a most important part."

"You will all have thin little bodies, for who wants to be fat?"

"Not a mouse certainly, and most especially not a house mouse. For, as I said before, it is better to be small, as then you can get through smaller spaces."

"Now, the House Rat is often unable to get through a hole that you can get through. That is when we can laugh at the House Rat and can say, 'Well, fine fellow; is it the best you can do? And we can go scampering off gaily.'"

"Don't go where the weather is too cold. You needn't be too fussy about the weather, but you don't want to go way, way up north, where you might freeze."

"I do not believe there is any danger of your going too far north, though. You can go pretty far without coming near any of the bitterly cold, polar regions. Regions mean neighborhoods you know and when I say you don't want to go to any of the polar regions I mean you don't want to go up to the North Pole part of the world."

"I will let you leave me before long and before the year is through I will pride myself upon having raised several families of dear mice children. I like to welcome lots of little mice and let them how they should act and what they should do in the big world into which they're soon going alone."

"Most Important."

A Sharp Speaker.

Mrs. Sheridan, the beautiful young Anglo-American sculptor who recently went to Russia and made busts of Lenin, Trotsky and the other Bolshevik leaders, succeeded particularly well with her bust of Trotsky.

Mrs. Sheridan, who was Miss Moreton-Freven before her marriage, said at a dinner party:

Trotsky, you know, is famous for his sharp speeches. When I exhibited his bust in Petrograd, a lady said to Lenin:

"What a likeness! You can see the quiver on his lips."

"Yes," said Lenin, "and the arrows coming out of it."

Some Wind.

A stranger in New Mexico became very much excited and alarmed at the continued high wind, which carried tons of sand through the air during the day. He remarked to an old resident that it seemed to be an awful windstorm. The old resident replied:

"Windstorm? This ain't no windstorm. Why, stranger, last week the wind was blowing. You've seen ground squirrels? Well, I saw one of them 30 feet in the air—digging a hole in the sand."—Exchange.
